

JLL

The award-winning JLL Chicago Property Management team delivered yet another banner year in 2014, adding more than 4 million s.f. of new assignments (between July 2013 and June 2014) and renewing management agreements at a variety of other high-profile buildings. New additions include some of Chicago's biggest and best-known office buildings: Tribune Tower (975,000 s.f.), 540 W. Madison (1.1 million s.f.), 300 South Riverside Plaza (1 million s.f.), 10 & 120 S. Riverside Plaza (1.4 million s.f.) and One North Franklin (620,000 s.f.). JLL also continued to bolster its industrial management portfolio, which now includes properties totaling more than 4.5 million s.f. (up from zero just three years ago).

Company Total Square Footage as of June 30, 2013: 63,500,000 s.f.
