

Curtis D. Spencer

President
IMS Worldwide, Inc.

Curtis Spencer is the President of IMS Worldwide, Inc. (IMSW), headquartered in Houston, Texas. Curtis is a nationally regarded expert on matters related to:

- Logistics and Intermodal Shipping Trends, Ports, Inland Ports and Rail-Served Logistics Centers and how they Impact Industrial Real Estate.
- Development and Utilization of Foreign-Trade Zones for Importers and Exporters
- Impact of E-Commerce on Logistics and Supply Chains and Industrial Real Estate

Curtis Spencer is featured as a speaker at more than 55 national conferences and workshops each year, and has been published in The Journal of Commerce, Pacific Shipper, Inbound Logistics and other news magazines. Curtis has been the keynote or featured speaker at annual events sponsored by the following associations: IWLA, RILA, JOC (TPM & Inland Ports Logistics), ULI, NAIOP, SIOR, AAEL, NAFTAZ, AAAE, IEDC, GA Logistics Conference, CSCMP (2 time track chair), WERC and ICSC.

IMSW under Mr. Spencer's leadership, is now a leading consulting firm for developers and real estate trusts who seek his guidance as it relates to; Value Propositions for Industrial Real Estate, Port Efficiencies and Site Selection Differentiators.