

Christine Choi Moore
Director of Asset Management, Midwest
Manulife Investment Management

Christine Choi Moore was recently appointed Manulife Investment Management's Director of Asset Management for the Midwest in July 2020. Notable Chicago assets include 191 N. Wacker, 200 S. Wacker and 55 W. Monroe. Her primary role is to oversee, create, develop and implement asset strategies to maximize leasing and portfolio performance. Christine is responsible for the vision and execution of various asset improvements and developments across the Midwest Portfolio.

Outside of Manulife Investment Management, Christine dedicates her time and expertise to a variety of non-profit and real estate organizations, including serving on the Board of Directors for the Chicago Chapter of NAIOP. In 2011, Christine saw a gap in the industry and started IWIRE, a grassroots association for transactional women in industrial real estate. IWIRE Chicago has grown from a network of less than 30 to over 100 women, and fosters collaboration and education through hosting monthly events. Christine is also an active member of COLBA (Chicago Office Leasing Brokers Association), ULI (Urban Land Institute), CREW (Commercial Real Estate Executive Women) and stays very connected to her alma mater, Northwestern University.
